

Name: _____ Class: _____
 Name: _____ School: _____
 Week: _____ Standard: _____

In the water cycle, the sun heats the earth's surface causing water to evaporate. The water vapor rises forming the clouds. When it cools down, the water vapor condenses and falls as water droplets. Lakes, rivers, glaciers store this water and it returns to the oceans. Write the corresponding words to complete the water cycle.

